

Christmas Ball
At Camino JC

The arrival of the Christmas season was heralded by the student body of El Camino College last Friday evening, December 19, with the annual Christmas Ball.

Joan King, Torrance, commissioner of activities, said decorations of the campus center for the event were focused on a Christmas tree decorated by student volunteers. Sprigs of mistletoe, holly with its red berries, cuttings from poinsettia, added to the color of the occasion. Decorations were in charge of Ruth Halsey.

Music for the event, which is traditionally attended by most of the members of the faculty as well as the student body, was provided by Don Stewer's orchestra, Miss King said.
